

Cycle of Violence

I can't leave.

What if he catches me?

I can't leave my babies with no Dad.

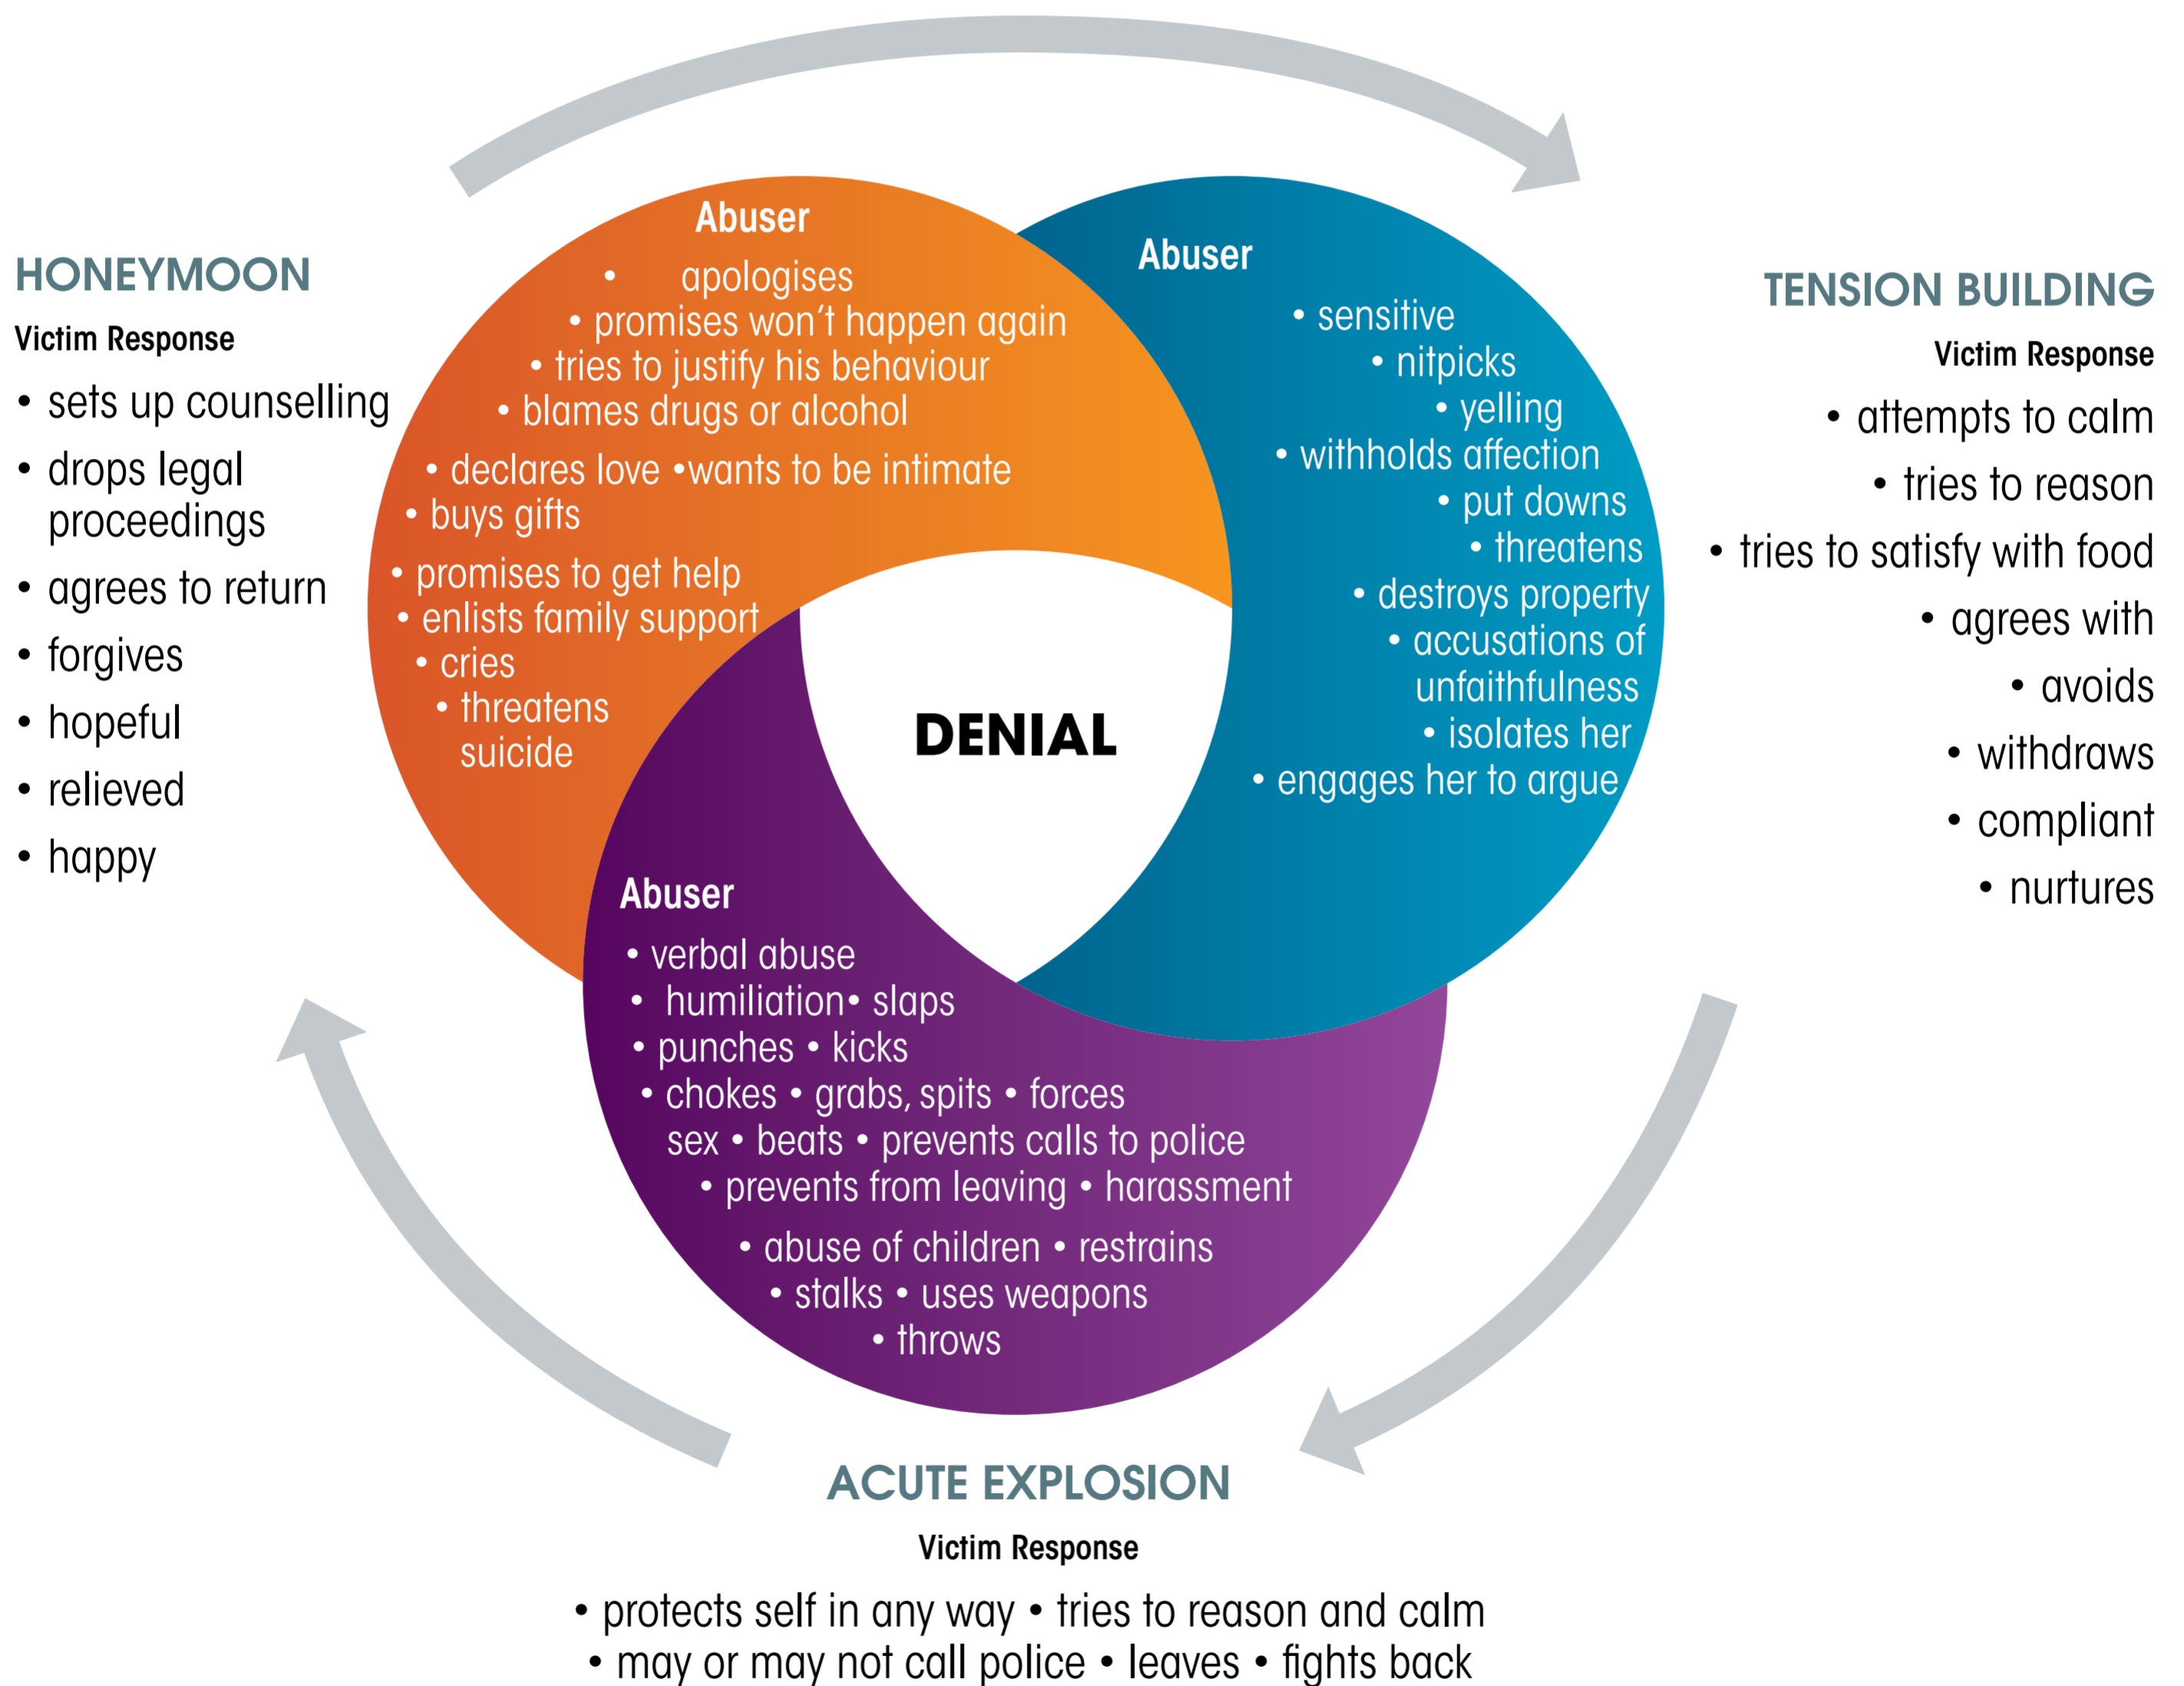

He will hurt someone I love.

I have no money.

He will find me.

He will change.

I have to stop making him mad.

The cycle of violence explains the situation for some women, not all.

LEAVING IS A PROCESS.

There are many reasons women stay. Below are some examples.

- fear
- shame
- guilt
- she still loves him
- it may be safer to stay
- financial issues
- impact on children
- lack of alternative housing
- lack of support
- fear of not being believed
